

How could you survive the Stone Age?

Retrieval questions to be used at home:

- What are the 7 continents of the world?
- Can you describe the way that the Stone Age population moved across the world? Why didn't they just settle in one place?
- What makes the 3 types of rock different?
- Why was this period named the Stone Age?
- If you went to Scotland, which famous historical site could you visit to learn more about the Stone Age? What would you find there?
- What can you teach me about cave paintings?
- Tell me about Stonehenge,
- Draw and label a typical stone age house – what materials did they use?
- If I lived in the stone age, what would I have worn?

Hide the key word or the description – can you fill in what is missing in order to explain our key vocabulary to somebody else?

Artefact	An object made by a human being, typically one of cultural or historical interest.
Hunter-gatherer	A human living a lifestyle in which most or all food is obtained by foraging and hunting
Forage	To search widely for food or provisions
Nomadic	A member of a community without fixed place of living which regularly moves to and from the same areas.
Neolithic	The Neolithic period is the final division of the Stone Age, with a wide-ranging set of developments
Mesolithic	The Old World archaeological period between the Upper Paleolithic and the Neolithic.
Palaeolithic	A period in prehistory known as the old Stone Age but also distinguished by the original development of stone

Remember!

Use your knowledge organiser to help you if you're struggling to begin with. The more you talk about our learning, the easier it will be for you to remember it!